WHAT PRESIDENT WILSON SAW ON THE BATTLEFIELD OF FAMOUS BELLEAU WOOD

Then he saw the score of men

come back with dripping bayonets.

They were the first bloody bayonets over for a minute. Then I realized they meant victory, and I was all with the crowd when a moment later the shout went along the line for These worn boys-I can't call them-anything else because they were so young-hungry, thirsty, living on their nerve alone, wanted to attack.

The next day they did and the Battle across the wheat fields and into the wrecked forest. Exhausted, we fell sives and gas, fell into the woods.

My Captain told me I slept through the opening rounds of the barrage

My first recollection is of a blinding to an aid station and laid there for three hours. Then I slipped out and were going well, but Capt. Hamilton was surrounded on Hill 142 with his

We were just cursing the luck that I had qualified as a mortar expert and I got the job. We started with men were killed as we reached the hill. We raced on, the gunners with ton had driven them, were dividing grenades among themselves and yell-

The next day the attack switched

CHEERFUL MESSAGE.

Finally, we were relieved for four days, only to return to find that the

that night I received for Major Key-woods for a half hour and then i

THE NEW AMERICAN LINE THAT

ASTONISHED THE GERMANS. We hurried so that we passed our the telephone we had dragged along sent back the following message:

I awakened the Major, for a knew of death.

ing for help.

"I'm not dead. Send me mormen and was believed to be dead.

tars and a thousand grenades" permission to attack.

American Executive Hears the beard the e-e-y-a-a-h ery of Story of Great Fight From One Who Was in It.

IS TOLD OF HEROISM.

Evening World Man Who Was There Draws Picture of the Conflict.

By Lieut. Joseph Brady. (Late of 5th Regiment of Marines, of Belleau Woods began. We who Member of The Evening World Staff.) had been in for four days were put While farmers successfully ploughed in reserve when the others swept the fields, carefully avoiding the little graves scattered about, President asleep. We were asleep when hun-Wilson yesterday afternoon visited dreds of German shells, high explothe black tangled jungle of Belleau Wood, that square mile of timber set in the heart of a great farming coun- falling all around. Many others try where for six weeks two regi- were so tired they did the same. ments of American marines met and CHAPLAIN BRADY LIFTS LIEUT. As he looked at the great trees of the forest, blasted and split by shell-fire, flash and a sensy of going through he was told the story of the battle, space. Then another roar and flash and in his mind he pictured it. He and then a hundred breaking shells was told by a man who was there, al around and human legs and arms and I am going to try and tell you scattered everywhere. Half carried what the President saw as he listened by the Chapiain, Father Brady, I got highway in his motor, the President got back in time to hear that things saw on all the roads leading up thousands of young Americans in khaki and the field gray of the marines. Then he saw them turning off to the fields right and left, loading their took Hamilton, one of the best, when rifies. He passed a ruined farmhouse the following message came from where Gen. Harbord and Cols. Neville him: and Catlin stood in the doorway shouting orders to officers passing with their commands. The soldiers melted away in the tall wheat of the a rush up the road to Hill 142. Two

Then from the north came a line of retreating French soldiers, firing as their morturs and a score of men they went back. They ran into the with grenades. We were crossing the quiet American line, which was there bald face of the hill when the Gerunknown to most of them. The poilus mans opened with machine guns and and their officers yelled to the Ameri- rifles, but we got through and a few cans to Get back! Get back; the minutes later the Germans, trying to Boches were coming and all would get up the slopes from which Hamilbe captured!

CHARACTERISTIC REPLY TO AD-VICE TO RETREAT.

The officers caught the American of- into the centre of the Belleau Woods. ficers by their arms and begged them For eight days we covered the left to go back, and some one records that of the woods with the mortars while an American officer said: "Go back! the Germans continually bombarded Hell, we just got here." I heard Col. and counter-attacked in the woods Fred Wise say those very words in Along the western edge dead Gerthe cemetery at Marigny, but at the mans and marines lay thick, often in same time it was coming from a thou- the embrace of a last life and death sand tongues and every officer in the struggle. sand tongues and the 5th and EVENING WORLD MAN GETS A 6th Marines were saying about the same thing to the French officers.

obeyed their orders to retire, and a Germans still held the north corner, portance of which was admitted by made, it was said at Headquarters, whether it was physically possible for north, there came into view the man Army. Every boy said a prayer over in the morning and at $ 6 clock over in the morning and looked at the sights on his rifle. Suddenly white puris of strappel acr, who was sleeping for the first broke over the advancing German time in days, the following message:

ONE OF MURDER.

A striking feature of the case is skirt, and finally to have laid down in that whether the girl committed suitable control of the Borough of Tenufly, declared of the Borough of Tenufly, declared over her. dropped. Then came the word to fire, and out of the tall wheat came the blast of death to the Boche. He broke, then tried to reorganize, but blast of death to the Boche. He full possession. Good luck, old top.

This is the first official who has sweetheart gone and ended her life murder or suicide rests er through despondency; or she may have been lured into the woods and finally turned and fled into the woods. The next day the Boche began to fight us, but if I am to tell what the and that was to bring the line to the there and covered herself up." he was a trained nurse. President saw from that time on 1 left of the Belleau up 600 yor is 10 hand. 'She would have struggled in analyzing the superficial clues. must assign him to the 2d lemitation. book up with the tip of the woods. A when she inhaled the fumes from the investigators are dubious on two commanded by Lieut, Col. Wise.

PRESIDENT SAW HEROISM mans in the Belleau Woods had held surely have fallen off the cliff." RAISED TO HIGHEST PLANE. this movement for days. We put

For four days, assuming that now the President is with the 2d Barthe earth as every minute a shell will fire on us." I told the two men tore up the earth about him. He with me. "And it would be much more comfortable to be hit while near our own lines than away out there, and new men rush in to take their places, and he saw hun- out." dreds of Germans fall as they tried to approach the unbreakable line. Suddenly, in early dawn, terrific machine gun fire swept from the left of the line, a score of marines to the line of the line, a score of marines to the line of the line o left of the line, a score of marines rushed into it, and a moment later fields and organize them to advance. Licuts. Lyle and Matthews volunteered to go along, and we almost ranthrough what had in the afternoon been forbidden ground.

heatsworth

contains 100% of the wheat berry—all the fine flavor, all the rich food elements, all the while we figured the direction of our healthful bran.

You'll never want to be without this whole wheat flour once you try the recipes for feathery, hot biscuit, crisp-crusted muffins, griddle cakes that taste like more, and puddings that provided the direction of our own art flery was breaking right back of the line we were is, and that probably accounts for the fact that the Germans had terationally left that spot. We crept back, found the men, gave the necessary orders, and in filteen minutes were like more, and puddings that part of the old German line, and over part of the old German line, and over the irrection of the line we had dragged along prove their deliciousness in the Ground fresh in New York City The chickens have arrived and are scratching."

In the morning the Germans saw a F. H. BENNETT BISCUIT CO., N. Y. had been captured and made safe.

Where the Girl of Mystery Was Found Dead on a Ledge of the Palisades Near Englewood, N. J.

(Continued from First Page.)

ONE OF MURDER.

there was just one thing more to do "No woman could have gone down made way with. It is possible she

Aside from Lyons's story, the

The arrow points to the spot where the young No. 1 is a flat rock about ten by twelve feet to the that remartie minded sweethearts might select to

BUT HER NAME IS NOT MADE PUBLIC

right of the point where the body was found. It is impossible to climb down this point on the right No. 3 is the slope from the crest of Palisades

Park to the rock ridge. No. 4 is a deep hollow on the right which would be a convenient place to dispose of a body if a mur-

Physicians, it is said, question road, but continued along Terrac whether the amount of chloroform itoad. No such young woman ever insten the pins themselves. If some likely to have been carried in a three-reached the hospital. der had been committed, IDENTIFIES PALISADES DEAD GIRL, one else did it, one detective asserts, he clasp would have been upwarda little thing, but one that may prove

> PERSON SKILLED IN ARRANGING BANDAGES.

But the hand that did it, whether that of a trained nurse or of a mem-Missing Persons went to Englewood skilled in arranging bandages and ard Steps and begin ber long walk of the $200 raccoon coat with which the body was covered. One of the accept the suicide theory The Presecutor and the police would moment later, a half mile to the Major Shearer with his battalion and the authorities, the most important may be stamped with the name of the this means to get the name of the bottle to her nose, to have placed the A striking feature of the case is cotton over her face, then the under-

"We put the U. S. Marine Corps to-day that in his opinion the young in surgical work prepared her for her. When the

MEMORIAL FOR ROOSEVELT AT WESTMINSTER ABBEY

LONDON, Jan. 28 - A memorial servoir is planned for Westminster Abbey at a date not yet fixed. Such a sefor a foreigner is extremely car-1 Westminster Abbey. The operatinty about the date is wins to the deidle of Promor Loyd Dearge to pertpone the service until the the members may attend. The Duke btaining the use of the Abbey for the

It is expected that King George and Queen Mary will attend The Archibinop of Canterious probably will officiate. ALEANY, Jan. 28.—A resolution approximation of 900 for the expenses of the Legislative Memorial Exercises on Feb. 10 kenur of Theodore Homewit was adopted by the Assembly to-day.

FIRE ROUTS HOTEL GUESTS.

Scores Flee From Colonial, 125th Scores of half-dressed soldiers and civilians rushed from their rooms in the colonial Hotel, 125th street and Eighth Colonial Hotel, 125th Street and Eighth Avenue, early to-day when flames were also overed sheeting toward the roof.

The alarm was given by J. Tygart, who awoke to find his room filled with make. He rushed up and down the halls awakening the sleepers.

Firemen soon had the fire under control. It was said by the police that a match dropped in file storeroom of the lightly caused the fire.

Missing Aviators Safe. PARIS, Jan. 38 .- Capt. Cori and Lieut. Roget, French aviators, were forced to land at Rosas, Spain, in an attempted flight from Algiers to Marsellies, ac-ording to advices received here to-day. Thay were unreported for more than twelve hours.

FACTS THAT FIGURE WILSON HAILED IN THE MYSTERY OF PALISADES GIRL

Deductions as to Murder or Returned Traveller Sav-Suicide Theory Can Be Based: on These Discoveries.

Pending an natonsy late this dreamed unusu commun found Sun-Complex S. J., alred and to payme either the mursey or the matche theories which have been afranced

Dr. W. A. Ondro, County Medical. Examines, is in charge of the autopsy, assisted by Dr. Walter Phil-Hus of Ecolescool and County cine, have their aupporters among policemen and detections. The following points are urged in favor of the two theories: SUICIDE.

A three-ounce bottle, believed to have contained either or chloroform, was tied to the bend and pressed bourgeois capitalistic statesman to Various bandages holding the bot-serge skirt were a number of safety R. White of Norfolk, Va., an officer ples of the same pattern, apparently in the Fourth Machine Gun Batallien, laced there for a special purpose; kept the bottle in position were fas- innother passenger. ened with the clasps downward. If with the clasp apward. The missing right hand glove was found on the way from the cliff top o the ledge where the body was und. It was thrown away, say hose who argue anicide, the better o fasten the chloroform-soaked

MURDER.

It was impossible for a woman to rawl out upon a narrow ledge, ar ange these bandages, tie a petticoat ully with a fur coat. The strips of cloth holding the brown bottle in place appeared to ave been pinned into place in the back much more neatly and carefully to help lift her into the stranger's than could have been done by a wom- car. White helped him. in the threes of suffocation.

AS ONLY FRIEID BY WORKINGMEN

French Trust President-Few Soldiers Arrive:

tuence over the working classes of erance," said Mr. LaMonte, "Taky

Commander Baldwin, U. S. N., who Second Division, wearing the D. S. C. The safety pins on the strips that for heroism in the Verdun sector, wie-

Miss K. Usher, on artist, also caus on the Minnesota. She is on her way of Great Britain, having been engaged in relief work for four years. .La Lorraine of the French line ar nunce bottle could have caused death

William White, Englewood taxteab driver, tells of having been balted after midnight six weeks ago on Terrace Road, one and one-half miles from the place where the body was found, by a tall man who pointed to the body of a young woman in the roadway, said she had been struck

Sata Diefnion.

The World's Greatest Hotel and Co-operative Enterprise.

To COMMONWEALTH HOTEL CONSTRUCTION CORPORATION E L BARNETT Inc.,

18 Erst 41st St. Please sead sie information

_To Cost $15,000,000.00_

Great Clearance Sale

DRESSES & COATS for WOMEN & MISSES

Entire Stock Greatly Reduced MANY ITEMS FAR BELOW COST

Smart Frocks Formerly to 35.00

Many new Spring models, fine Serges, Taffeta, Satins and Velveteens, Tucked, Draped, Embroidered or Braid Bound. Consider that the material and trimmings cost more wholesale than the price at which they are offered by us. Black, Blue, Burgandy, Taupe, Reindeer, Brown, Green and Navy—all sizes from 14 to 46. No one will be disappointed at this closing out sale, which will be the talk of the town!

175 Afternoon Frocks

formerly to $39.75 Newest Georgettes, Satins, Crepe Meteors, Embroidered and Tailored Serges, Velour, etc -- in the season's most desired shades. Closing Out at

110 Magnificent Frocks Very exclusive models and Finest formerly

Materuis Georgette, Taffeta, Crepe Satin, Nets. Finest Quality Serges, Georgette, Tricolette, Jer-sey, Tricotine, in Navy, Burgundy, Henna, Taupe, Copen, Green, Brown, Blue and Black. to $49.50

165 New Daytime Frocks

formerly up to $45.00 Georgettea. Satins, Fine Serges, Taffetas. The season's most attractive colors: Navy, Black, Henna, Copen, etc. Closing Out at 10.75

90 Afternoon & Street Gowns

All Remaining High Cost Models All Remaining High Cost Models regardless of former prices. A few Dresses worth up to $100. Fine Satin, Georgette, Tricolettes, Tricoline, Crepe Satin, Unquestionably the most exclusive collection ever shown.

Closing Out at

Extraordinary Coat Bargains

back effects, in Bolivia, Wool Velour, Pon Pem, etc., with large shawl collars of Scaline, Nutria and Taupe Nutria. Some with fur cuffs. Noticeable features are the fine silk linings. (Some are pussy willow.) Interlined throughout, including the sleeves. If made to order they could not be better finished. About 15 different models, and a variety of colors—Black, Blue, Taupe, Reindeer, Brown, Green, etc.

CLOSING OUT AT

up to $65

Fighting With the 27th How New York Boys

Starts Evening

World

on Thursday

BY

HOWARD OF THE

Intelligence Department

MEMBER OF EVENING WORLD STAFF

Broke the Hindenburg

SERGEANT McLELLAN

twelve hours.

Service to De Held After New Parliament is Seated-King and Queen May Attend.

single patch of woods and the Ger- bottle fied under her nose and would points in particular. One is whether the young woman herself could have

"Do you think there was more than fitted the bandages about her head, heavy artiflery on the little patch of one man involved?" he was asked, and the other whether the three-"I believe there was more than one ounce bottle fied to her form count

Detective Oswald of the Bureau of